THE PRINTERS' FESTIVAL

IN HONOR OF

THE NATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION.

Our readers are aware that the National Typographical Union, composed of delegates from the various local Unions in the United States, has been in session in this city during the past week. As a fitting conclusion to the labors of the Union, on Thursday evening a grand Banquet and Ball were given at the Richmond House by the Chicago Typographical Union to the delegates of the National Union, and we but echo the universal opinion when we say that it was one of the most elegant and recherche Festivals that ever took place in this city. The proprietors of the Richmond House, famed for their success in affairs of this kind, fully outdid all their previous successful efforts.

About eight o'clock, four hundred of as happy, beaming faces, and well-dressed and proportioned forms, as we ever had assembled at any public fete, sat down to the splendid supper, and gave their attention, for about one hour and a half, to the good things set before them by the proficient host. The bill of fare was an "institution" of itself, and filled up every one hundred inches, including Hamlin's Cabinet Organ. Hot, ice, and tea the close of this interesting portion of the Festival.

The President of the Chicago Typographical Union, Mr. Meacham C. Masters, in a few well chosen words, gave the guests a cordial welcome, and then gave the first Regular Toast:

THE NATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION—The shield of our strength and the source of our great prosperity: [Applause.] by all means.

This toast was responded to as follows, by R. C. Burns, of Philadelphia:

THE NATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION—What a happy assemblage of ideas are enunciated in that single word—what harmony of thoughts are blended in "Union." To a Printer, it speaks volumes. It is the fountain fair of his hopes. Unity Union does not stand out as the greatest to the posterity in the great temporal happiness. It is by Union and an intelligent Union that we preserve the art of all arts, "the mother of arts and sciences." It preserves to us all arts, "the mother of arts and sciences." It preserves to us all arts, "the mother of arts and sciences." It preserves to us

"New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union."

Whereas, The Supreme Court of the United States is and has been declared, &c., &c.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every true Democrat to vote against the Lecompton swindle—because Senator Douglas, who is the regular nominee of the Democratic party, says he will vote against it.

Resolved, That we will support no man for office who will not pledge himself to vote against the Lecompton swindle—because Senator Douglas says he will vote against it.

Resolved, That we will not support any
